GENTLEMEN:—For the last eleven months l'have been suffering almost dally from severe attacks of Dyspepsia; so much so that I could with difficulty retain a meal in my stomach more than twenty minutes. At night I experience a great burning in or about the heart; a general depression of spirits, attended with frequent headache, dizziness or dimness of sight. I tried various cathartic compounds and stomach preparations, without being afforded any effectual relief, till I need four bottles of "Hubbel's Golden Bitters" since which period I have not been troubled with a single one of the above complaints. From the benefit those Bitters have afforded me, I feel it my duty to express publicly my grateful thanks, GEU. A. BANCROFT.

Editors Intelligencer:

As I have never heard of a letter being published sent you, from this part of the world, I have concluded to write and see if I could not give you a slight sketch that would interest some of the readers of your valuable paper.

Business here at present is very dull, and has been since last fall, on account of all of the mills ceasing operations and lying idle during the winter. The mill belonging to the Midas Company of New York, began operations three weeks ago, and will stop again next Saturday. The Superintendent of it don't think the quartz here will pay. He will start for the east in a short time. The mill belonging to the New York and Montana Mining and Discovery Company is undergoing repairs. Clark's, Copes', Wann's and Adkins' mills, are all closed, and are not likely to start again. Some of the loads look very well, but it does not pay to crush the quartz.

I had almost forgotten to mention

very well, but it does not pay to crush the quartz.

I had almost forgotten to mention the machinery belonging to the Wheeling City and Montana Gold and Silver Mining Company. It arrived here last October,—was unloaded in Caplain Maulsby's yard, whereit has been ever since, (and I think it is likely to stay.) The gentlemanly Superintendent of this company had a house built over it to keep it from being damaged by the weather. Has been used with almost unparalled su-cess for the past twenty years, in cases of

The big excitement is now at Crow The big excitement is now at Crow Creek, some 50 miles from this place, Reports reach this place that they have found gravel diggings, bed rock pitching and 74 cents to the pan, in coarse gold. Large parties have left here for that place. Your humble servant starts with others to-mbrrow to see what these new diggings will amount to. Reports are very favorable from the Sweet Water and Flint Creek mines. Thomas Dillon and Jack Iset are employed at Pratt's mill repairing it. Bill Stipes is at Helens. There are also several other Wheeling boys scattered around in different places through this territory. The present wages for mining are $30 a month see through this territory. and board,

This may prove a very rich district in time to come. It is a well known fact that the best lodes in this district are owned, comparatively speaking, by moneyless men, who are unable to do moneyless men, who are unable to do such prospecting as ought to be done in pursuing the precious metals. Leads are supposed to pay the best at the depth of one hundred and fifty feet, and downwards, and as it requires an expenditure of from three to five thousand dollars to sink a shaft that distance no noor man each. tance, no poor man can undertake it, hence millions may lay concealed till the days of the millennium before they are discovered, unless capitalists come to the rescue.

Full many a gem of purest ray serene The dark, unfathomed caves of ocean Full many a flower is born to blush unseen, And waste its sweetness on the desert air. I think I am right when I say that too much money has been spent in useless experiments and not enough on developing leads. Lowis W. Borton is in Quincy, Illinois, trying to raise a company. May he be successful.

ing of the Wire Pullers-General Brisbin's Letter Slaughtering Curtin-The Great M. U. Ex-press Robbery-Billiard and Turf Gossip.

Special Corresponpence Intellig CHICAGO, April 7, 1868. THE COMING CONVENTION

Has sent its first heralds to us in the guise of veteran wire pullers, who straggle in daily, engrossed with pre-liminaries even at this early day. The V. W. P.'s are full of money, and they will soon have matters so arranged that any delegate or delegation who is remise. remiss in arranging for board and odging previous to his arrival will ind himself in a predict will lodging previous to his arrival will find himself in a predictment, and be forced to sell his vote for rations and shelter. It is the same old game of Pogram and Nasby over again. This third estate of preliminary politics is far more powerful than the dear people on the outside imagine, and this time it intends to show its power to the full. Since the appearance of General Brisbin's slaughtering letter on Curtin, a host of gentlemen hitherto to fame unknown have been dug ont, each and all ready to be martyred for the Vice Presidency, and each and all satisfied that they have claims upon a grateful country, etc., etc. A little

satished that they have claims upon a grateful country, etc., etc. A little time will unfold a vast deal in this matter, and so let us wait. THE M. U. EX, CO. ROBBERY. Not the robbery of the people by the M. U. Express Company, but the rob-bery of the M. U. Express Company by way. Suffering with dyspepsia of the most painful kind, I used the Golden Ritters pre-pared by Messrs. Hubbel & Co., and was cur-ed. I am convinced that all complaints of this kind can be cured by your Ritters. Wish-ing you prosperity and great success in the curing of all the complaints that afflict the human frame. bery of the M. U. Express Company by some people, is still the engrossing subject of conversation. Each day new developments arise which explain many disappearances hitherto considered sealed mysteries. It now appears, though the fact is first made public through this lettler, that there is a woman in the case, young, witty handsome and intensely fascinating, and it is said that she has feathered her nest finely and is now enjoying the Messrs, Geo. Geo. C. Hubbel & Cho.—Gentlemen: We have analyzed your Golden Bitters, and find that its compound parts antille it to the notice of the medical profession. Since our analysis we have used it in our practice with very satisfactory results, and find it particularly well calculated to correct the "mangement of the digestive organs, such as dyspepsia, diarrihose, sick headache, cholic, dec., dec., and is a superior tonic for daily use in moderate quantities for aged persons, and also for those of delicate constitutions. At this writing McDryitt is the favorite, and unless Foster does far better than he has ever yet done, the former will not only continue to be the favorite, but the champion. The excitement runs high—both parties wagering money freely on their fortunes, with the odds in favor of the present champion. In my next, I will give you a pen photograph of the contest and of the contestants, GENTS.—My family having been the recipient of marked benefit in health by the new of your 'Godden Blitter.' I am induced to acknowledge my sense of gratitude in this letter, which you are privileged to use as you desire. I can confidently assert that since the first bottle of your Bitters entered my house I have heard of no complaint of dyspepsia. My wife had been troubled with the malkdy for years, and had also been much annoyed by piles. The symptoms and the disease have both lett, and she is well. Other members of my family endorse the good qualities of your article, and I can only say, in conclusion, that I should be happy to give verbal evidence to the doubting any time they may call on me. THE famine in Algeria is fearful. A letter in the Paris Temps relates that the neighbors were attracted to one house by the smell of roast meat, and found a mother and two children esting the flesh of a third child. Cannibalism is said to have become quite common.

A New England gentleman on a visit to Paris says: "The first night I wanted hot water, and the maid could not undestand my French, until in humorous despair I exclaimed, "Oh pshaw!" when she at once laughed and said, 'Eau chaud, monsieur?' 'Oui, oui,' I replied, and in a minute had my

From the Richmond Disputch of Monday.

If Governor Peirpoint had in this way entitled himself to the reward of Radical approbation he had, on the other hand, done some acts of kindness towards the State and the prostrate Confederates, just after the war, that deserved their grateful remembrance. We are clear for awarding him this meed of praise. He did much that entitles him to grattude. Unfortunately, he allowed his course to be checquered subsequently by a divided and equivocal manifestation both of policy and sentiment that impaired his standing on both sides. His last year's stump campaign was damaging to himself and beneficial to none.

His incertitude and wavering has reached the contraction of the standing on both sentitude and wavering has disposition and much practical good sense, and not a great deal of decision of character.

His incertitude and wavering has probably ended in his removal; for something is evidently at fault behind the scenes. He is a man of good, kind disposition and much practical good sense, and not a great deal of decision of character.

This is a sort of obituary of the distinguished Governor, as it well may be; for he dies by the sword, and will not soon be resurrected. We rather like the Governor, and desire that he may be well in the world; but we cannot say that we are much moved by the events which send him to the delightful precincts of Fairmont, with its green fields and lovely prospects. We should think it rather a blessing than an affliction to be turned out of office and retired to such a paradise. When Governor Peirpoint compares his fate with that of his unhappy comrades in banishment from office, he may well return thanks in hymns of joy for the kind dispensation which relieves him from the office of Governor of Virginia at a time like this, and permits him to enjoy the bright scenes, green meads, and sweet waters of Marion. Ferewell, Governor!
